

SHAREHOLDERS COMMUNICATION POLICY

1. Purpose

This Policy aims to set out the provisions with the objective of ensuring that the Company's shareholders, both individual and institutional (collectively, "Shareholders"), and, in appropriate circumstances, the investment community at large, are provided with ready, equal and timely access to balanced and understandable information about the Company (including its financial performance, strategic goals and plans, material developments, governance and risk profile), in order to enable Shareholders to exercise their rights in an informed manner, and to allow Shareholders and the investment community to engage actively with the Company.

For the purpose of this Policy, references to the investment community are intended to include the Company's potential investors as well as analysts whom reporting and analysing the Company's performance.

2. General Policy

The Board continues to maintain communication with Shareholders and investment community and will regularly review this Policy to ensure effectiveness. Information shall be communicated to Shareholders and the investment community mainly through the Company's financial reports (interim and annual reports), annual general meeting and special general meetings that may be convened, as well as by making available all the disclosures submitted to The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("SEHK") and its corporate communications and other corporate publications on the Company website.

Effective and timely dissemination of information to Shareholders and the investment community shall be ensured at all times. Any question regarding this Policy shall be directed to our Company Secretary or Investor Relationship Department.

3. Communication Strategies

(A) Shareholders' enquiries

Shareholders should direct their questions about their shareholdings to our Company's Registrar.

Shareholders and the investment community may at any time make a request for the Company's information to the extent such information is publicly available.

Shareholders and the investment community shall be provided with designated contacts and email addresses of the Company in order to enable them to make any query in respect of the Company.

(B) Corporate Communication *

Corporate communication will be provided to Shareholders in plain language and in both English and Chinese versions to facilitate Shareholders' understanding. Shareholders have the right to choose the language (either English or Chinese).

Shareholders are encouraged to provide, amongst other things, in particular, their email addresses to the Company in order to facilitate timely and effective communications.

(C) Corporate Website

Information released by the Company to SEHK is also posted on the Company website immediately thereafter. Such information includes financial statements, results, announcements, circulars and notices of general meetings and associated explanatory documents etc.

All presentation materials provided in conjunction with the Company's annual general meeting and results announcement each year will be made available on the Company website as soon as practicable after their release.

(D) Shareholders' Meetings

Shareholders are encouraged to participate in general meetings or to appoint proxies to attend and vote at meetings for and on their behalf if they are unable to attend the meetings.

Appropriate arrangements for the annual general meetings shall be in place to encourage Shareholders' participation.

The process of the Company's general meeting will be monitored and reviewed on a regular basis, and, if necessary, changes will be made to ensure that Shareholders' needs are best served.

Board members, in particular, either the chairmen or deputy chairmen of Board committees or their delegates, appropriate management executives and external auditors will attend annual general meetings to answer Shareholders' questions.

4. Shareholder Privacy

The Company recognises the importance of Shareholders' privacy and will not disclose Shareholders' information without their consent, unless required by law to do so.

* Corporate Communication refers to any document issued or to be issued by the Company for the information or action of holders of any of its securities, including, but not limited to, the directors' report and annual accounts together with a copy of the auditor's report, the interim report, a notice of meeting, a circular and a proxy form.
